

Cascadia The Free
By Little Bear and the Fostervillagers

C

Fly the blue, white and green,
If you know what I mean

□ G

Fly it high, fly it free,

C

From the mountains to the sea

Am G

We once belonged to a place

C F

called the United Snakes

C G C □

Til we realized we were free Cascadians

We don't need any wars,
That is not what life's for
□ No more blood spilt for oil,
Only hands working soil
□ Let's instead grow with love
and clean rain from above
□ And may the salmon fill these rivers
evermore

Fly that blue, white and green,
You all know what I mean
□ Our hearts love equally □
There's no room for fear and greed
Take my hand, sing with me.
"Oh, Cascadia the free" □
And together we will end this tyranny (x2) □

(INSTRUMENTAL + KAZOO SOLO)

Pay attention to the ground,
There is life all around □
Forests lush and waters clean,
Mountain snow that fills the streams □
Listen close and you'll know that the salmon told us so □
We must stand and protect Cascadia

When our children are old
□ They'll know land can't be sold
□ And the borders will come down
□ Earth united as one □
They'll think of us and they'll say □ (chant)
"THANKS FOR DE-PAVING THE WAY" □
To a free and healthy Cascadia

G

□ so.....

Fly that blue, white and green,
You all feel what I mean □
Fly it high, fly it free,
From the mountains to the sea
□ May the rain fall on us,
wash away our distrust
□ Let's join hands and overthrow this tyranny

Am G

No Tyranny! No Tyranny!

C F

We'll practice Deep Ecology!

C

Soon one day

G C

Cas-ca-di-a shall be free!
